

| LEG | SUB | SITE | HOLE | CORE | TYPE | SEC |
|-----|-----|------|------|------|------|-----|
| 169 |     | 1035 | E    |      | 1MCC |     |

ODP
VISUAL CORE DESCRIPTION

SEDIMENTS / SEDIMENTARY ROCKS

SECTION DESCRIPTION

|          |
|----------|
| OBSERVER |
| TAB      |

| PIECE # | GRAPHIC REPRESENTATION | DRILLING DISTURB. | STRUCTURES | SAMPLES | COLOR |
|---------|------------------------|-------------------|------------|---------|-------|
| 0       |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 10      |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 20      |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 20      |                        |                   |            |         | PALED |
| 30      |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 40      |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 50      |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 60      |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 70      |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 80      |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 90      |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 100     |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 110     |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 120     |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 130     |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 140     |                        |                   |            |         |       |
| 150     |                        |                   |            |         |       |

silty clay
 Same as above section with minor silt drab/dark interbed